

He Came . . .

He came ~ from eternity to the empty nothingness
and created the heavens and the earth and all that is within them.

He came ~ to Eden's Garden
and walked with humanity.

He came ~ to the Mercy Seat of sacrifice
to meet with man
—who had stained it with sin.

He came ~ to Abraham and his multiple family
to lead and bless a chosen race.

He came ~ to a maiden of Nazareth
and was clothed within the humanity whom He himself had created.

He came ~ to the Cross of infinite suffering,
as the ineffable consummation of the ages—
to salvage man and to glorify God.

He calls ~ this day as throughout all time—
*Come. Come unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.*

Christmas without Jesus Christ? Hardly.

Heaven's Kingdom without Jesus Christ? Hardly.

Let us then be assured,
And join hands with the worshipping wise men.
There is room aplenty for more than three.

May your Christmas be merry
And may your Christmas be meaningful.
